LEO XIIL

GREAT CHANGE BETWEEN CARDINAL PECCI AND THE POPE-HIS HEALTH AND HOPES COMPLETELY BROKEN.

[Rome correspondent of the Pall Mail Gazette.]
A Scotch physician long resident in Rome, coming out from an audience of the Pope the other day, said—
"Never have I seen such a change in any human being unless produced by some physical illness. Cardinal Pecci was a tall, erect, well knit figure, his presence was imposing, his gestures commanding, his voice sonorous and vibrating. Lee XIII, is a bent Cardinal Pecci was a tail, erect, well knit figure, his presence was imposing, his gestures commanding, his voice sonorous and vibrating. Leo XIII, is a bent old man, his hand shakes as with palsy, his voice is hoarse, and the glance of his eye uncertain and suspicious." This statement tallies with that of the Pope's friends and partisans, who are sincerely anxious about his health. He appears to be in a state of extreme esspondency; all his projects for reform are frustrated, all his hopes of reconciliation with civil powers abandoned. He flods himself watched at every step. Merely to admit Padre Curel to his presence he was obliged to resort to strangem, and lodge him in his own orother's apartment. What the ultramontane party require of him is that he should follow exactly in the steps of his predecessor, choose to be a victim and a prisoner, and work arduously in favor of the restoration of the temporal power. This programme is opposed to his view of the interests of the Church. He saw at the time of Victor Emmanuel's death that any attempt to recover the lost temporal power would be furthe; every protest and plea was set aside by the various government, and the new Ambassador from France to the Vatican formslip announced that the French government, while anxious for the spiritual liberty of the Church, have enjouned on him to benish all hope that any uncertaking would be sanctioned in favor of restoration.

One would have mengined that, backed up by these facts, supported by the liberal cardinals and by the single minded churchmen everywhere, Loo XIII. Would have been strong enough to hold his own. But the power of the Jesuits is still very great. Their perseverance and their whilespread toffuence are incalculable. Every reform proposed summitted to the congregations is rejected; every old protest and ceremony insisted on. Now the anathemas and excommunications against the "violated rights of the Church" are to be renewed, as of old, on St. Feter's Day, and the Pope, whose health has suffered severity from

THE PEOPLE'S MONEY.

The committee of the Industrial Association who seek to investigate the various departments of the people's money are annually expended, yesterday received the following authorization from Mayor

ERRARENT:—
USERTLENER—The New York Industrial Association having expressed a desire to examine the workings of some portions of our elly government. I ask that such facilities may be extended to them by the various departments and bureaus as is consistent with the public service.

SMITH ELY, Jr., Mayor.

A meeting of the committee, of which Colonel J. C. Kerrigan is chairman, will be beld at No. 249 West Twenty-mints street on Saturday evening next. The industrial Association claims to represent a large portion of the Workingmen's interest of this city, and it is stated have organizations in every Assembly district, They complain of the vast amount expended by the city government in high saleries while thousands of poor isborars and meetanics are without the means to leed their starving jamilies.

THE COURTS:

Decision as to Liability of Collection Agencies.

LIBEL SUIT BY MAJOR QUINCY.

Compositions in Bankruptcy No Bar to Fraudulent Debts. .

An important decision as to the liability of collection agencies was rendered yesterday by Judge Van Vorst, wherein M. W. Mendel & Brother sued the Mower & Grosby Collection Agency. The action was brought to recover $400. On July 21, 1874, the plantiffs delivered to the defendants for collection a past due note for $400, made by the firm of Leuiz Borie & Co., of Fort Wayne, lud. The note was entered in a 'pass book issued by defendants to plaintiffs, upon which was printed the following receipt:—'Received of M. W. Wendel & Brother for collection the following described claims, avails of which are to be promptly pail over on receipt by us." The defendants forwarded the claim, for purposes of collection, to James Schell, an attorney-at-law at Fort Wayne, lud. Schell, an attorney-at-law at Fort note and failed to remit the proceeds to the defendants. Shortly thereafter be died. Demand having been made upon defendants, and they returning to pay, thus action was commenced. The case was submitted on acmitted facts. In awarding judgment for the plantiffs the following opinion was rendered by Judge Van Vorst;—'James W. Schell, the attorney-at-mw at Fort Wayne, was the agent of the defendants. This is well settled. In Palmer vs. Holland [51 New York, 416], the defendant, a collection agent in New York, to whom a note was delivered for collection payable in California, was held lable for the omission of all agents, including antorney-at-law, to whom defendants intreated the same for collection. The attorney in Fort Wayne being the agent of the defendants, they are liable to the planniffs for the proceeds of the note when received by the sub-agent. The eccept in which it is sated that he "avails are to be promptly paid over on receipt by us,' I cannot think that the defendants' irres relation and liability are at all affected by this language. The money was received by them in hand when collected by their sub-agent. The receipt was intended as an assurance of prompt pay ment over, and nothing more. Thereshould be judgment

William H. Quincy, formerly order of arrest clerk in the Sheriff's office, has brought a suit for libel against John Francis and Henry O. R. Tucker, propriagainst John Francis and Henry O. R. Tucker, propri-eters of the troy Daily Times, in which he seeks to recover $50,000 damages. The alleged libelious article was published on September 7, 1878. He objects to the statement that he made a great deal of money in his official position, whereas, as he claims, he only received his legal fees, while the intimation was that received his legal fees, while the intimation was that he made his money by "secret arrangements and ways that are dark," He also claims to be libelious the intimation that he was associated with Capfain Wirz in the maltreatment of Union prisoners in Zouthern prisons during the war. The case came up in Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday, before Junge Potter, on a motion to strike out as rivolous the demurrer to the complaint, such demurrer setting forth that it did not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action. Junge Potter, in commenting on the argument of counsel, said that the inter part of the alleged libel only charged Major Quincy with once having had a bad employer in the person of Captain Wirz, but he conceded that there might be something objectionable in the intimation of his making money in office here turough ways that are dark. He took the papers for examination. Mr. Henry H. Morang appeared for Major Quincy and Mr. George W. Parsons in opposition.

A vertotic was ordered for the plaintiff. Messrs. Hatch & Van Alien ap-peared for plaintiff, and Messrs. L. A. Gould, S. M. Ehrinch and Robertson & Robertson for delence.

THE FUGITIVES TO BERMUDA. In the Court of General Sessions yesterday Terener Donnelly was placed on trial on a charge of forgery by Assistant District Attorney Rollina. The indictment alleges that some months ago Edward Augustin and William Reilly, employed for several years by Mr. Edwin C. Litenfield, a retired lawyer and an ex-Mr. Edwin C. Litchfield, a retired lawyer and an extensive real estate broker, lest this city in company with a companion named Thomas Cowan, and that soon atterward Mr. Litchfield discovered that he had been defrauded of $16,500 by means of forged checks drawn on the Corn Exchange National Bank. The fugitives fied to Bermuda, but were traced there, arrested and brought back to this city. They were all indicted and pleaded guilty. They volunteered to become State's evidence, and gave information which led to the arrest of the accused, who, they alleged, was the actual lorger. On the other hand the accused gives an emphatic denial to the charge, and claims that the allegations of the three youths are without the slightest foundation. Colone John R. Follows appears for the defence. A Jury was empanelled, and the bearing of the case will commence to-day.

TRYING THE INSANE DODGE.

While Louis Boggara, an Italian fruit dealer, was aking change for a customer on the 12th inst. Willlam Madden, a bootblack, rushed up, took a silver raised and Madden was overhauled, but not, however, before he had thrown away the money. He was tried before he had thrown away the money. He was tried yesterday before Judgo Sutherland, in the Court of General Sessions. While on the witness stand he leigned insanity, averting, among other things, that he had been nurt by a fall from St. Patrick's Cathedral Bity years ago. Assistant District Attorney Rollins proved that the accused was a well known thef, who had been frequently arrested, but has always escaped punishment by pratending to be of weak mind. In this instance he latied, the jury having found him guilty. Judge Sutherland sent him to the Ponitentiary for one year.

SUMMARY OF LAW CASES.

Judge Van Hoesen yesterday granted a decree of absolute divorce in favor of the plaintiff in the suit of Anna Dumaine against her husband, George Dumaine. The parties were married on the 2d of May, 1862. The decree was granted on proof of adultery.

Henry Davis, a youth, who has already served a term in State Prison, broke into the basement of Benjamin F. Knowiton, at No. 124 Park avenue, on the 27th of May last, and stole a few articles of prop. erty. He was caught in the act, and, on being arraigned in the General Sessions yesterday, pleaded eriy. He was caught in the act, and, on being arraigned in the General Sessions yesterday, pleaned guilty. Judge Sutherland sentenced him to two years and six mouths in State Prison.

James Wilson and Charles McCarthy broke into the liquor store of Mctthew McCormick at No. 640 Eighth avenue, and carried off a quantity of cigars. They were caught emerging from the pramises and when arraigned yesterday in the Court of General Sessions proaded guilty. They were sent to the State Prison, each for the twrm of two years and six mouths. Judge Van Hoesen yesterday, on the petition of John Baumer, granted a writ of habess corpus to outain possession of the petitioner's wife and child. In his petition Mr. Baumer states that he always took good care of his wife had child, but that his wife left him, taking the child win her, and is now staying with her mother in James streat.

There was tried yesterday before Judge J. F. Daty, in the court of Common Pleas, a suit brought by Samuel D. Warner, an architect, against Professor Charlier to recover his lees as architect in the building of Charlier Institute. The offendant set up a counter claim for $20,000 damages for the alleged negligence of the plaintiff in not completing the Institute. A scaled version was ordered. Messrs. J. L. Brown and W. H. Secor appeared for the plaintiff, and Lord, Day & Lord for the defendant.

A cigarmazer named William Gardner, of Troy, N. Y., broke into the rooms of Uriron Hastinger, No. 100 systems A, on the 11th test, and stole Jewelry and other strictes valued at $130. On Being arrested he was indicated for grand largesty and other strictes valued at $130. On Being arrested he was indicated for grand largesty and as will be remembered, while awaiting trist in the prisoners' pen attached to the Coopt of General Sessions, contrived to push his body through the bars of the root, but was prevented from excaping by Capital Oaklord. When arraigned for trievyesterday by As-and Jadge Sutherland sent him to the State Prises jee four years.

On the lith inst. Louis Petsel was tried in the Court of Special Sessions for larceny from his employer. Elkan Blumenthal, of No. 371 Broadway. After the cross-examination of the complainant by Mr. Abe H. Hummes, the priseser's counsel, the Court sequitted Petzel en the ground that he was justified in taking the property, the subject of the larceny, as a porter's perquisites. Petzel therenpon, through Messre, Howe and Hummel, instituted an action against his former employer is the varine Court for take imprisonment, laying his damages at $2,000. Judge Goopp issued as crider of arcest, and Mr. Biumenthal was taken is custedly by the Sheriff, by whom he was speedily released on bail.

In the suit brought by Israel J. Solomon against John Lynch, Andrew Gilsey and others a decision was given vesterday by Judge Lawrence. Gilsey was appointed guardian for two minor children and certain moneys belonging to the latter were paid into Court. By docree of the Superior Court, Special form, gransed in September, 1875, $5,263 38 of this fund was directed to be paid to Gilsey, the money being paid to Thomas E. Stewart, council for Gilsey. Application was made to compel Stewart to pay the money to Gilsey, the inter alleging that Stewart kept concealed from him the fact that he had received the money and that a final judgment had been entered in the case. Stewart agas that the children's mother knew about his receiving the money; that he had a claim for legal services and that when such claim was satisfied he would hand over the balance. Judge Lawrence appointed ex-Judge Boaworth referes to investigate the facts of the case.

There was a lengthy argument yesterday before Judge Barrett, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, on a motion to quash the indictment against Louis F. Therasson, the lawyer. The accused was indicated for grand larceny on a charge of obtaining from Mrs. Zapriskie a satisfaction piece of a mortgage. It is alleged that the rance of the motion wa

YOUNG DESPERADOES.

SUBURBAN MANSION PILLAGED BY SIX BUF-PIANS-THE ENTIRE PARTY ARRESTED AND HELD FOR TRIAL.

An attempt at robbery took place in the Twenty-third ward on Wednesday night, which for ingenuity and boldness has rarely been equalled. Mrs. Barbara Herring has charge of and lives with her husband in Point, comprising a handsome house, with grounds extending to the East River, where the owner has built a private dock. The house stands in an isolated location within the limits of the old town of Morrisania, and of the present Thirty-third police precinct. This portion of the precinct is patrolled only by the mounted squad. Mrs. Horring about dusk in the day above mentioned lay down upon a lounge in the drawing room and being much fatigued soon fell into mounted squad. Mrs. Horring about dusk in the day above mentioned lay down upon a loungs in the drawing room and being much fatigued soon fell interest as sound sieep. Her husband was at work in the garden. Awakened by an unusual noise and straining her eyes in the growing darkness, sie saw half a dozen rough looking men in the apartment. Mrs. Herring sereamed, and the intruders tried without avail to gan net. The noise slarmed her husband, who at once comprehended its cause, and started in search of assistance to remain quiet while the robbers plundered the house. The latter, however, were much disappointed in the search, as the silver and plated ware and other articles of value had been taken away. Returning to the parior a few of the intruders begin to aunoy Mrs. Herring, while the others quickly transferred some strictes of clothing to a boat which they had moored to the dock. It was evident that the raid had to them proved a failure, and thinking themselves secure the rufflans appeared determined to vent their spicen upon Mrs. Herring. The latter, paralyzed with fear, offered no resusance, but was soon reserved from her unpiessant position.

A Dakin at once sounded an alarm, and in a few minutes was joined by officers Great, Holiand and Gannen. The officers than spurred up their steeds and resensed the house just as the robbers were preparing to get lato their boar. The latter made desperate efforts to get away, but finding it imposable, engaged in a hand-to-land fight with the officers. The police-nee, however, treed their cules with effect, and soon five of the thieves lay prostrate, while the sixuf, taking advantage of the confusion, dropped into the boat and efficited his escape. His companions were pinced in a wagon to when a horse was attached and were then rapidly driven to the police station in Behriem, nearly few mide distant. One of the officers from the distant was a foliower. John McCann, monteen years of oige, residence, no alto searly obstructed its passage. Sergenti Weston took too pedigree
